Everything you ever wanted to know about Modern Psychoanalysis

...A series of informal group conversations with distinguished leaders in the field.

ROBERT J MARSHALL, PhD

Dr Marshall is a faculty member and training and supervising analyst at CMPS. He has authored over thirty articles and chapters, including "Resistant Interactions: Child, Family, and Therapist," and co-authored with Simone Marshall, PhD "The Transference-Countertransference Matrix." His most recent paper (2011) "On Mirroring, Fractals, Chaos, and Psychoanalysis" received the 2013 Gradiva Award.

Our next guest is Robert J Marshall, PhD, who will address questions from the audience about Hyman Spotnitz's training at the New York Psychoanalytic Institute during the years 1941-44. The noted psychoanalysts who schooled him at the Institute had been closely associated with Freud and had also been greatly influenced by Sandor Ferenczi. Suggested advance readings: R. J. Marshall (2000) "Hyman Spotnitz and Sandor Ferenczi: Psychoanalysts of Passions" and (2008) "Hyman Spotnitz: Recollections." (Available at cmeps.edu)
