Modern Psychoanalysis: Its Place in Psychoanalytic History

HYMAN SPOTNITZ AND THE FOUNDERS of the modern school expanded and modified the Freudian canon so that it evolved into a unique and highly successful approach to both treatment and training but isolated it from the mainstream. The reasons behind this isolation are examined in the larger context of historical and political developments in psychoanalysis. This event is followed by discussion and a social gathering.

Friday Evening, May 10th 2013, 7:30–9:30 PM
CMPS. Sixteen West Tenth Street. NY NY 10011

This event is open to clinicians and the public
Information/RSVP: CMPS: 212.260.7050 • cmps@cmps.edu • www.cmps.edu

Educational objectives:
- Describe the development of modern psychoanalysis
- Compare and contrast modern psychoanalysis from other schools of psychoanalysis
- Recognize and assess the critical role played by unconscious libidinal and aggressive forces in shaping the history of psychoanalysis and its practitioners

Level of seminar: Intermediate
Target audience: Psychoanalysts, students of psychoanalysis and other mental health specialties, historians, writers, and all those interested in the history of psychoanalysis and its influence on culture.

The program is not offered for APA CE credits. It is offered for 2 NASW CEU credits.

For information on CE credits or to RSVP, contact the CMPS office: 212.260.7050 • cmps@cmps.edu • www.cmps.edu

PRESENTER: SARA SHEFTEL, PhD, LP

Dr. Sheftel is a training and supervising analyst at CMPS and NYGSP, and serves as CMPS Director of Continuing Education. She has published numerous articles on psychoanalysis and is currently working on a book on Hyman Spotnitz and modern psychoanalysis.